

ALTAIR - PERFORATED PANELS

Altair Perforated Panels are cost effective, vertical support panels formed to create rigidity and strength to meet code for parking structures & building façades.

Aluminum perforated metal patterns come in a variety of shapes and sizes for a truly unique façade. These cost-effective panels are lightweight, yet durable, and virtually maintenance free. Our panels offer designers and architects exciting opportunities for architectural elements.

